

OPSYRIS 2012

Organisation for PSYchological Research Into Stroke
Wednesday 17th October, University of Birmingham

Programme

10.30	-	11.00	Registration and refreshments
11.00	-	11.20	Audrey Bowen/Reg Morris, Welcome from Chair and Host
11.20	-	11.40	Emma Patchick, Developing a comprehensive, patient-centred outcome measure to evaluate the effectiveness of cognitive rehabilitation after stroke
11.40	-	12.00	William Hallam, Variables associated with posttraumatic growth in people caring for a spouse who had suffered a stroke
12.00	-	12.20	Karen Quinn, Spousal experiences of coping with and adapting to care-giving for a partner who has a stroke: a meta-synthesis of qualitative research
12.20	-	12.40	Karen Quinn, The experience of couples when one partner has a stroke at a young age: an interpretative phenomenological analysis
12.40	-	1.45	Lunch
1.45	-	2.05	Reg Morris, Psychological needs of community-living stroke patients
2.05	-	2.25	Nadina Lincoln, Cost-effectives of behavioural therapy for stroke patients with aphasia
2.25	-	2.45	Audrey Bowen, Evidence for the cognitive rehabilitation of spatial neglect
2.45	-	3.05	Madeline Harrison, Patients', carers' and health professionals' experiences of the psychological support provided following a stroke: a qualitative study
3.05	-	3.25	Mal Auton, Motivational Intervening post stroke: exploring adjustment mechanisms
3.25	-	4.00	Business Meeting

Contact us

Deborah.robinson2@wales.nhs.uk ☎: 029 208 70545