OPSYRIS annual meeting 2022

In our last newsletter, we announced that the OPSYRIS next annual meeting will take place in Durham (UK).

We can now confirm the meeting will take place on Friday 23th September 2022. Save the date!

Study seeking participants

Julia Keleher, a trainee clinical psychologist at the University of East London, is looking for clinical psychologists who work in an MDT that supports people with aphasia. She wants to find out more about clinical psychologists' understandings of the emotional outcomes associated with aphasia and their experiences of working in MDTs that support people with aphasia. If you have can donate an hour of your time to take part in a Teams interview with Julia, please get in touch with her on: U1945472@uel.ac.uk

New OPSYRIS committee

This committee's term will be coming to an end in December 2022. We are therefore looking for a new team to take over in 2023. Please contact the current chair for more information or to express interest: nele.demeyere@psy.ox.ac.uk

Your event, job ads and recruitment

We are very happy to include your event, job ads, and calls for recruitment to your study in our newsletter. Please get in touch with the secretary, Kathleen Vancleef on info@opsyris.org
