

Organisation for Psychological Research in Stroke

Annual Conference 4th July 2023

PROGRAMME

9:00 – 9:25	Registration and coffee
9:25 – 9:30	Welcome from OPSYRIS Chair (Dr Stephanie Rossit) Welcome from Director of Institute of Mental Health, Nottingham (Prof. Martin Orrell)
9:30-11:00	Invited Symposium: Lessons learned from running clinical trials testing complex interventions. Chair: Prof Avril Drummond Prof Kate Radford: Lessons learned from running clinical trials testing complex interventions: Supporting delivery of the trial intervention Dr Shirley Thomas: Lessons learned from running clinical trials testing complex interventions: Trial logistics Dr Eirini Kontou: Lessons learned from running clinical trials testing complex interventions: Training and competency Keynote lecture: Prof. Audrey Bowen: Trials - love them or loathe them, you can't live without them Questions and Answers
11:00 - 11:30	Poster Session
11:30-12:35	Open Symposium 1: Assessment and intervention for emotional issues post-stroke Liz Lightbody: Confirming the mechanism of motivational interviewing therapy after stroke: a multi-centre randomised controlled trial Andrea Kusec: What are the Long-Term Psychological Consequences of Stroke? Georgina Ottaway: Reaching consensus to suggest guidelines for the non-pharmacological management of post-stroke emotionalism using the Delphi Method and mini-focus groups Tom Steverson: The Reliability, Validity and Clinical Utility of the Clinical Outcomes Routine Evaluation Ten Item Version (CORE-10) in a Post-Acute Stroke Inpatient Sample Josh Blake: The factor structure of the patient health questionnaire-9 in stroke: a comparison with a non-stroke population
12:35-1:35	Lunch and Poster Session
1:05-1:35	AGM
1:35-2:35	Workshop: NIHR funding for testing complex interventions Brian Crosbie and Rebecca Barnes (NIHR Research Design Service East Midlands)

2:35-3:00	Open Symposium 2 (part 1 Online presentations): Assessing and supporting people with aphasia post-stroke Jessica Hourston: Evaluation of Validity of an Aphasic Friendly Mood Measure for use with Post-stroke Patients Sian Carroll: Working with Stroke Survivors with Aphasia – An Online Vignette Study of Speech and Language Therapists
3:00-3:30	Poster Session
3:30-4:00	Open Symposium 2 (part 2 In-person presentations): Assessing and supporting people with aphasia post-stroke Faye Wray: Methods, benefits and challenges of using co-production and behaviour change theory to develop a self-management intervention for stroke survivors with aphasia. Madeleine Harrison: Identifying Key Components of a Computer Therapy Intervention for Aphasia Post-stroke: A Secondary Analysis of the Big CACTUS Trial Data
4:00 – 4:45	Open Symposium 3: Cognition and the body Dragos-Cristian Gruia: Disentangling hand motor-control and cognitive deficits during self-administered cognitive assessments in patients with stroke Catherine E Davidson: Understanding and defining people's body image experiences after a stroke Emma Elliot: Using Rasch Measurement Theory to examine the Oxford Cognitive Screen Rising Star Award talk Kathleen Vancleef: Improving the Oxford Visual Perception Screen: A screening tool for visual perception difficulties after stroke
4:45-5:00	Closing remarks from OPSYRIS Chair

Poster Presentations:

First Author and Affiliations	Title
Kim Fletcher, University of Nottingham, Midlands Partnership NHS Foundation Trust; Ministry of Defence	A rapid realist review of clinical neuropsychology rehabilitation programmes to improve psychological wellbeing and quality of life for people with acquired brain injuries
Joshua Blake, University of East Anglia	Comparing the Symptomatology of Post-Stroke Depression with Depression in the General Population: A Systematic Review
Emma Trigg, Lincolnshire Stroke Service, Lincolnshire Community Healthcare NHS Trust	Evaluating the use of Mood and Cognitive Screens in Lincolnshire Stroke Service
Crina Ene, University of East Anglia	A Feasibility Randomised-Controlled Trial of Two Online Psychological Interventions for Stroke Survivors
Robyn Charleston MSc, University of Oxford	Association of executive functions with emotion and psychological well-being in stroke.

John Kinley, Department of Experimental Psychology, University of Oxford, Oxford, UK	A comparison of the efficacy of Behavioural Activation with and without Activity Segmentation in the treatment of depression in post-stroke populations
Sam S Webb, University of Oxford	Development and validation of an IRT and theory-based Oxford Cognitive Screen short form for use in primary care
Lucy Snell & Dr Birgit Gurr, Dorset HealthCare University NHS Foundation Trust	Dynamic Information Processing Programme (DIPP): A Dynamic Cognitive Stimulation Programme for Stroke Patients
Grinberg Eldad	Basic needs satisfaction and work-related psychological outcomes of occupational and physical therapists in the rehabilitation climate
Kyle Kelleher, University of Oxford Department of Experimental Psychology	Picture This: Mental Imagery as an Episodic Memory Management Strategy for Activity Planning in Stroke Survivors with Depression
Stephanie Rossit, University of East Anglia	Impact of aging and stroke on a new computerized test of visual attention in far space
Charlotte van de Wouw, Utrecht University, The Netherlands	Embracing Technology: End-Users' Perspectives on Digital Neuropsychological Assessment in Cognitive Rehabilitation (ONLINE POSTER)
Kulsum Patel, University of Central Lancashire	How would a Stroke Patient Concerns Inventory be implemented in practice? A qualitative study (ONLINE POSTER)

REGISTRATIONS: All attendees are expected to register here.

PRESENTATION GUIDANCE

Posters

- Poster max size – A0 portrait orientation
- Please provide pdf copy of your poster by 30th June midday so this can be uploaded for online attendees including an email for questions to info@opsyris.org

Talks

- In person – to facilitate the running of the meeting we ask that presenters please email their slide deck to info@opsyris.org by 30th June midday.
- Online - to facilitate the running of the meeting we ask that online presenters please email your presentation recording (respecting the timing you have been given) to info@opsyris.org by 30th June midday.

CONTACT: Please email our shared mailbox - info@opsyris.org

VENUE: Institute of Mental Health, University of Nottingham

ACCOMMODATION: Nearest hotel to conference venue is the Jubilee Conference Centre. They have free onsite parking and cost varies but around £95 B&B.

PARKING: Link to instructions for parking and maps can be found here

Map and parking information: a site map and parking information can be found here parking is pay and display and on a first come first served basis. Spaces can be limited so please ensure you arrive in plenty of time to find a space. Please note that issuing of parking tickets is in operation on this site so if it is your intention to drive and park at the venue then please read the parking instruction document on the website. There are 3 disabled parking bays next to the Institute of Mental Health near Costa Coffee.